(Thornhill, On.) - Police and fire officers from across Ontario will be teaching 140 soon-to-be CAA School Safety Patrol captains traffic safety lessons. The children ages 10-12 years will be taught the dangers of impaired driving, speeding and distracted driving.

The CAA School Safety Patrollers are learning about traffic safety this week at the CAA School Safety Patrol Leadership Camp. This is the 40th Anniversary of CAA School Safety Patrol Camp. Police officers and children from Toronto, Durham, Barrie, Peterborough, Peel, Brantford, London, Orillia and Nottawasaga are in attendance.

Media are invited to join us for a live demonstration of the “jaws of life” being used during a vehicle rollover simulation as well as get key traffic safety tips with the kids.

What: CAA School Safety Patrollers' lesson on traffic safety and Jaws of Life demonstration from Oshawa Fire Department

When: Thurs., July 23, 2009
1:30 pm

Where: Camp Samac, 275 Conlin Rd. E., Oshawa, On
