

CAA CLUB GROUP

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

BIOGRAPHIES OF THE THREE DIRECTORS UP FOR (RE) ELECTION ARE PROVIDED HERE:

Marrienne Bridge, FCPA, FCA, B Math

A member of the CAA Club Group's Board of Directors since February 1, 2015, Marrienne Bridge was formerly Deputy Director, Compliance, Strategy and Risk in the Compliance and Registrant Regulation Branch of the Ontario Securities Commission.

From 1995 to 2014, Marrienne was actively involved in the CPA profession as a member of the Council of the former Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario (ICAO) (now Chartered Professional Accountants of Ontario), as a member of the Management Advisory Committee, and as Chair and a member of various Council committees. She was also previously Chair of the Discipline Committee of the ICAO.

She has also had various volunteer roles with not-for-profit entities such as the Canadian Cancer Society (Ontario division), Community Head Injury Resources Services of Ontario, and St. John Ambulance Council for Ontario Resources Committee.

Marrienne graduated with a Bachelors of Mathematics degree from the University of Waterloo in 1981, obtained her CA designation in 1982 and was appointed a fellow of the ICAO in 2009.

Along with her role as Vice Chair of the Board, she is currently the Chair of the Governance and Nominating Committee, and sits on all committees of CAA Club Group's Board of Directors. Marrienne also sits on the Board and Committees of Orion Travel Insurance Company and Echelon Insurance.

Brian Chu, LL.B

A member of the CAA Club Group's Board of Directors since December 8, 2020, Brian Chu is a founding partner of the Toronto law firm Bogart Robertson & Chu LLP. His practice involves serving his institutional and large corporate clients with their transactions in the areas of commercial real estate and commercial mortgage lending.

Brian has extensive public sector board experience in the areas of regulatory affairs, energy, post-secondary education, arts, culture and government relations through his current and previous positions as Vice-Chair of the Technical Standards and Safety Authority (TSSA), Vice-Chair of Toronto Hydro Corporation, Chair of the Ontario Science Centre, Chair of the Ontario College of Art and Design and Vice-Chair of the Chinese Cultural Centre of Greater Toronto.

Currently, Brian is a member of the Governance and Nominating Committee and the Human Resources Committee of CAA Club Group's Board of Directors.

Janet Lafortune, BA, AICB, C.DIR

A member of the CAA Club Group's Board of Directors since 2009, Janet Lafortune is a partner in Lafortune & Associates, located in Peterborough, Ontario, consulting in the areas of marketing and strategic planning. Janet also serves as a Board Director of The Stewart Group, which operates facilities in North America, Europe and Asia, providing global customers with a wide array of products and services.

Janet's career highlights include 21 years with PepsiCo/Quaker Oats Canada where she held positions including V.P. Marketing, Director Information Services, and Operations Services Manager. She previously held progressive management positions with CIBC.

Janet is a past Board Chair, Peterborough Utilities Inc., and was formerly a Director of City of Peterborough Holdings Co Inc. Janet holds the designation Chartered Director, having completed the Director Education program through The Directors College of University of McMaster's DeGroote School of Business.

An active volunteer, Janet currently sits on the Board of Trustees of Lakefield College School. Past directorships include United Way of Canada – Centraide Canada, Showplace Peterborough Performance Centre, Performers for Literacy (Toronto) and Hospice Peterborough.

Currently, Janet is a member of the Governance and Nominating Committee, the Human Resources Committee and the Government and Community Relations Committee of CAA Club Group's Board of Directors. She is also the Vice Chair of the CAA National Board.