Details relating specifically to information collected on our website can be found in the Internet Security & Privacy section of this document.

If you choose to enter into contests sponsored by CAASCO, we will ask you to provide personal information in order to contact you in the event that you are eligible to win any prizes being offered in a given contest. At the time you enter a contest, we may also obtain your consent to contact you with respect to products or services offered by CAA South Central Ontario.

Many of our products and services are available both to members and non-members. The personal information that we collect in providing these goods or services will vary. CAASCO and its affiliates may share your personal information with each other in accordance with this policy. CAASCO may also collect your personal information from third parties in accordance with this policy; for example, from a contracted locksmith or tow truck operator that has provided services covered by your membership or from one of the swipe & save loyalty partners in order to ensure we provide you with CAA Dollars.

Occasionally, we may send you information about new and existing services and benefits that we or our loyalty partners offer. In order to offer products and services that are relevant to you and to help us serve you better, we may review and analyze your use of CAASCO's and our loyalty partners' products and services. In addition, for the same purposes, we may also collect and analyze information from publicly available demographic data about the territory in which CAASCO operates.

- Conduct surveys or research for CAASCO's internal use.

How does CAASCO disclose personal information?

We will not disclose, trade, rent, sell or otherwise transfer your personal information, without your consent, except as otherwise set out herein.

Service Providers and Affiliates: CAASCO may share your personal information with our affiliates and with our suppliers of goods and services, service providers and agents which are responsible for administering or providing products and services on our behalf. For example, we may use service providers to authorize and process payments, send email or other communications, run our contests, conduct customer research or manage and analyze data. Our service providers are only given the information they need to perform their designated functions, and we do not authorize them to use or disclose personal information for their own marketing or other purposes. Moreover, your personal information may be maintained and processed by our affiliates and service providers outside of Canada, including in the United States.

Partnerships: Although we sometimes offer products and services jointly with our loyalty partners, these partners never have access to our list of members and customers. Instead, personal contact information is transferred to a service provider specialized in contact (direct mail, email and/or telecommunications) list treatment. A strict data protection and non-disclosure agreement has been signed between CAASCO and any such service provider beforehand.

Sale of Business: We may transfer your personal information as an asset in connection with any contemplated or actual sale, merger or other disposal of all or part of our business or assets, or as part of a corporate reorganization or other change in corporate control, including for the purposes of determining whether to proceed with such transaction or fulfilling any records or other reporting requirements to such parties. In such circumstances, we will ensure that any transfer of personal information is subject to reasonable data protection security protocols.

Legal: CAASCO and its Canadian, U.S. and other foreign service providers and affiliates may provide your personal information in response to a search warrant or other legally valid inquiry or order, or to an investigative body in the case of a breach of an agreement or contravention of law, or as otherwise required by applicable Canadian, United States or other law. We may also disclose personal information where necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, to investigate or prevent actual or suspected loss or harm to persons or property, or as otherwise required or permitted by law.
