Voiceover >> It's different here. Quiet, pristine waterways greet you each morning. Rich cultural immersion is a daily occurrence. Days of sheer delight with opportunities for relaxation abound. This is a journey to engage your mind and delight your spirit. This is a journey with Viking River Cruises. You'll feel it the moment you arrive. Your Viking vessel is something special. A relaxing home away from home, where every aspect of the journey is planned with your comfort and pleasure in mind. Can a waiter make you feel like the most important person in the world? Can a concierge feel like a long-lost friend? That's what we aspire to at Viking. We handpick the very best individuals to work with us. Their attitude and expertise ensure that your every need is anticipated and that every day of your journey is a memorable experience from the moment you start planning until the time you return home. We've set high standards for the English-speaking onboard staff and crew. All of whom have successfully completed our certified passport training program implemented fleet-wide by our Swiss management team.
